GREEK MYTHOLOGY EXPLORED IN BEAUTIFUL NEW SHOW BY JESSE MOCKRIN @ NIGHT GALLERY, LA

Dec 01, 2018 - Jan 19, 2019
Night Gallery, Los Angeles

We don't need to tell you, as its evidence on the website since the new year, but there are a ton of shows to catch up and catch before they come down in the next few weeks. For those of you in Southern California, or LA in particular, we highly recommend the new exhibition, Syrinx, by Jesse Mockrin currently up at Night Gallery. We have been fans of Mockrin for her past shows at Night and Perrotin, but this particular show, in its ode to Greek Mythology, is stunning and sublime, historical but with with a very current approach.
