10 In-Demand Works on Artsy This Week: June 3, 2021

Kaylie Felsberg and Beatrice Sapsford Jun 3, 2021

In this weekly series, Artsy's Curatorial and Editorial teams offer a look at the artworks that are currently gaining traction among collectors on Artsy. Looking at our internal data, we share a selection of works that Artsy members are engaging with through inquiries, page views, and saves, plus promising lots in current auctions. The following pieces are culled from recent online auctions and art fairs hosted on Artsy, as well as exhibitions and works added by our gallery partners.

Claire Tabouret, Makeup (green dots) (2021)

After Claire Tabouret's record-breaking sale at Christie's "Post-War & Contemporary" auction this past May, demand for works by the French artist has continued to surge. This 2021 portrait, uploaded by Almine Rech in late May, has received a frenzy of interest on Artsy. This enigmatic work, featuring a woman surrounded by a yellow-hued halo, is a quintessential example of Tabouret's introspective portraits.
