

Cara Benedetto

Performance & Lecture

Tuesday
March 19, 2019

Lecture: 6:00 pm
Performance: 7:30

Cressman Center for Visual Arts
100 East Main Street
Louisville, KY 40202

Sequel

"Sequel," an event by artist Cara Benedetto, examines phallogocentric aspects of our performance-heavy culture, the various predatory relationships plaguing academia, the deficiencies of language, and, more optimistically, healing processes and support structures between artists. The project follows from similar performance-based projects the artist has staged at MOCA Cleveland and MoMA Warsaw. The script will be performed by Nina Kersey and Mackenzie McCamish. "Sequel" will begin promptly at 7:30, following the artist's talk.

Cara Benedetto (b. 1979 Wausau, Wisconsin) received her B.F.A. from Wisconsin University, River Falls in 2001 and her M.F.A. from Columbia University in 2009. Her work has been highlighted in shows at: Chapter NY, Metro Pictures, New York, MOCA Cleveland, Museum of Modern Art, Warsaw, Poland, and Night Gallery, Los Angeles. Benedetto is an Assistant Professor in Print Media at Virginia Commonwealth University.