Creativity in the Time of Quarantine

We asked 24 of our favorite creative minds—including Thom Browne, Dua Lipa, Desus & Mero, Robert Pattinson, and Ottessa Moshfegh—to tell us what they're discovering about art, and about themselves, in this age of isolation.

Quarantine Freestyle (study of objects in the studio), photographed at Erizku's studio in Los Angeles.

Awol Erizku

The Ethiopian-American photographer is spending time in his Los Angeles studio drawing, painting, and building surreal worlds in the form of evocative still lifes. So to what degree is this new work about the pandemic? "None?" he says. "But maybe we won't know until we're out of this crisis."
